How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money. One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk Rating

Nymbus Capital Inc. has rated the volatility of this fund as Low to medium. This rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low-risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What is a mutual fund and what are the risks of investing in a mutual fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan, or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class I units of the fund. The fees and expenses, including commissions, can vary among classes of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns.

* From February 10, 2020, until the date the class started, Class I units were distributed pursuant to an exemption from the prospectus requirement. Previously, from 2011 to 2020, they were distributed under a simplified prospectus, and from 2006 to 2011, they were distributed pursuant to an exemption from the prospectus requirement. The fund was not previously a reporting issuer, and the MER did not take into account various fund expenses that will now be incurred as a mutual fund whose shares are distributed by prospectus. If the fund had been a mutual fund distributed by prospectus, the fees would have been higher. These fees are charged directly to you. See "Other Fees" below. To pay these fees, the fund manager redeems a sufficient number of units from each investor to cover the amount of fees owed to the fund manager.

 The management fees for Class I units are negotiated with the IFM and are not included in the MER.

 I-Class units pay a fixed administration fee which is 0.25%.
